▼ Tanks of G3 gas remained attached to the outer wall of the colony following the incident.

Although several years have passed since the incident, the interior of the colony is preserved, exactly as it was at the time of the incident.

What was the Bunch 30 Incident?

3 30 Bunch annihilation

▲ The poisonous gas was introduced into the colony's atmospheric circulation system. The residents were killed before an evacuation notice could be given.

▲ Not even the Federation garrison forces were notified, and persons outside 30 Bunch had no way of knowing what really happened.

2 The Titans inject poison gas

▲ The Titans were assigned to suppress the demonstrations. Their approach began with focusing on the outer wall of the colony to place tanks of poison gas. When ready, they injected the gas without any warning.

▲ It remains unclear if other people involved in the plan were aware that a lethal substance was utilized.

1 Anti-Federation demonstrations

▲ Anti-Federation sentiment in the colony increases to the extent that speeches rile up the crowds at demonstrations. The Federation asks for the Titans' assistance to end the protests.

Resident dissatisfaction throughout the colony increased. Citizens openly expressed their anger towards the Titans and other issues such as tax increases.

Prior to the outbreak of the Gryps War

The Titans and AEUG had been engaged in minor and sporadic clashes. However, the theft of the Gundam Mk-II on March 2nd, U.C. 0087, marked the start of the full-scale armed conflict.

▲ Starting with Green Noe 1, the location of the Gundam Mk-II theft, various locations on earth and space turned into battlefields.

▶ The Gryps War was a civil war that took place within the Earth Federation. It was thrown further into chaos by the intervention of Axis and Neo Zeon. This conflict went unresolved, and quickly spiraled into the first Neo Zeon war.

Impact of the 30 Bunch incident

Following the 30 Bunch incident,

The Earth Federation looked the other way as they encouraged the Titans to abuse their power. This situation encouraged the formation and activation of Anti-Federation organizations, most notably the AEUG. The mounting conflict between the two groups escalated into the Gryps War, bringing with it the chaos in the earth sphere in the latter 0080's of the Universal Century.

▲ Hans was originally a commander in the Earth Federation colony garrison forces. His world was changed forever after he lost his wife and daughter in the bunch 30 incident.

AEUG and other Anti-Federation organizations

The AEUG was founded by volunteers who felt threatened by the Titans authoritarianism. Some of the AEUG members were former officers of the Federation army. Organizations other than the AEUG decided to engage in Anti-Federation activities, taking their own anti-Titans stance.

Van Asiliaino

Originally an officer candidate in the Earth Federation army. After learning the truth about the 30 Bunch incident, he became involved in anti-earth activities.

▲ Jom fought in the Gryps War under the Anti-Federation organization known as Karaba. It was during the battle of Kilimanjaro that he met Iris.

Titans

They established themselves in a position of power within the Federation. Later, they introduced the Power Expansion Bill to bring the Earth Federation military under their control. The Titans then intensified their oppression of spacenoids under pretext of maintaining public order.

▲ Jamilov Hyman, Commander of the Titans. Using his political and financial skills, consolidated the authority of the organization.

▲ Titans Commander Bask Om. He ordered the barbaric act of injecting poison gas into the colony. His hostility towards the spacenoids lead to the 30 Bunch incident.
